A Patient in the Bhannes
Hospital, Lebanon

Medical supplies for psychiatric hospitals run by the Franciscan Sisters of the Cross

LEBANON:

Life-saving medicine for the sick

Imagine a little girl in a neonatal paediatric ward, fragile and fighting for her life, depending on the generosity of kind hearts like yours to survive. Sister Rose Hanna tells us there are many children and people like this in Lebanon.

As Franciscan Sisters of the Cross, “we work with the sick, the orphans, the blind, the elderly and especially with those rejected by their families. It is the mission of Jesus”, she says.

“Eight years later, the parents of that little girl called me to attend her First Communion”, Sister Rose tells us. This is the power of your kind generosity, dear Benefactors.

When you give this Lent to help ACN provide medical aid for the sick, you are literally saving a life.

With €15, you can provide medicine to a patient for one (1) month. With €40, you can provide medicine to a patient for three (3) months.

HAITI:

Training of a Seminarian

Hope is fragile in Haiti, but your kind generosity can help it rise again. "We are going through one of the worst moments in our history. Every day we experience stress, political instability and insecurity," says Fr Jean-Jacques.

With a history of over 150 years of Priestly presence, the Montfort Missionaries are there, shining the light of hope in the darkness, serving the poor and wounded people.

Your kind generosity this Lent will enable this important mission to continue, helping to support the training of Seminarians, who are learning to bring Christ's presence and comfort to people in despair.

With €900, you can help a seminary provide one (1) year of formation for a Seminarian.

Children at the École Saint François d'Assise in Menjez

Missionary Sisters with the children in class

LEBANON:

The gift of education for a poor child

For many families in Lebanon, school is one of the few places that offer dignity and the assurance that children will have a chance to better their lives despite crisis and conflicts. Without your help, dear Benefactors, even this small refuge will slip out of reach.

With support from ACN, the Franciscan Missionaries of the Sacred Heart in Lebanon run two schools. One of these is partly free, so that even the poorest children are not left behind.

This Lent, your kind gift will provide scholarships for poor students at École Saint François d'Assise in Menjez. They will be able to continue their education and their path towards a future not limited by poverty or conflict.

Thank you for helping these children stay in school and move on in their respected lives.

€20 - Helps provide a scholarship for one child for an academic year.

Missionary Sisters working with displaced families

ACN's food support for internally displaced victims of terrorism in Pama

BURKINA FASO:

Food aid for a displaced family

In Burkina Faso, displaced people lack everything. Today, their cry for help to cover needs for food is a desperate one. Will you hear their cry?

Since 2023, the Missionary Brothers of the Countryside have been asking ACN to help them provide emergency aid to these people who have left everything behind and no longer have the means to support their families.

With your kind support, ACN aims to provide essential food aid to 200 vulnerable families who have taken refuge in Pama and Kompienga for four months.

Your generosity will provide each family with rice, millet, beans, oil and salt for 4 months.

Victor, a displaced person, told us, "Without your support, we would be starving. You are a real lifesaver".

With €88, you can support a family for a one (1) month. With €350, you can support a family for four (4) months.

Road condition during rainy season in Tajinsza

Missionary Sisters with children in Rabati, Akhaltsikhe

KAZAKHSTAN:

A minibus to reach the lonely & isolated

In the far north of Kazakhstan, many people live so far from any town or parish that they may never meet a priest or receive the Sacraments. A visit from a missionary is often their only moment of faith.

Thanks to your support, dear Benefactor, Missionaries from the Servants of Jesus and Mary can keep making these long journeys. They drive for hours over rough roads and through freezing winters visiting the sick and elderly, celebrating the Sacraments and providing pastoral care to the faithful.

Their mission is becoming increasingly harder to sustain as their vehicles have become old with wear and tear.

Your kind gift can keep these visits possible. Please give today and help keep this lifeline on the road.

€200 - If 70 people each give this amount, the full cost of the minibus can be covered. Will you be one of these Benefactors, today?

LEAVE A LASTING LEGACY

Remembering to leave a gift to ACN (Malta) in your Will is a powerful way to express God's love - bringing hope and faith to some of the world's most vulnerable communities where the Gospel of Christ has yet to be heard.

Gifts left in Wills are deeply valued, and ACN dedicates a portion of bequests to offering Masses for the benefactor's soul. The names of benefactors are also inscribed in our In Memoriam book and remembered at our annual Mass for deceased supporters.
